Kathy,

To a real sweet girl. I've written that in a lot of yearbooks, but I really mean it. You're one of the nicest + sweetest people anyone could hope to find. Don't ever change. I'm really glad we got to be friends + I hope we remain friends for a long time. It's nice to have someone to talk your troubles over with + know that you can trust them. Even though I haven't known you as long as I have my other friends, I still consider you one of my best friends. It means a lot to have a friend you can count on + I feel I can count on you + you know you can on me. I hope all your dreams come true. Since most of your dreams concern Dean, he'd better realize what a wonderful girl he has. Dean, if you read this open up your eyes. There is no doubt in my mind that you + Dean will get married, it just takes Dean a little longer than most people. It may seem like you have problems now, but after a few months of married life, you'll think how carefree the old days were. Only kidding. This may sound fake, but I really mean (all of) it. Remember you have friends that will always be there in time of need.

Best of Luck in everything you do.

Each individual
has a responsibility to himself and to all of humanity to develop the talents which he uniquely possesses.
He must be challenged in his pursuit
of a rich and full life.
As an individual he has the freedom to search the depths of his knowledge.
His true nature is enriched by a deeper insight into humanity.
At Start High School he finds the stimulating atmosphere he needs
to cultivate his life's goals.
Each success becomes a stepping stone in the path to intellectual development and responsible citizenship.
He must strive to prepare himself
for the challenges of a sophisticated scientific world which he must face.
He becomes a master of responsibilities
and an example of leadership.
Each year amplifies his character
and builds a foundation of sound judgment.
Experience leads him
to greater understanding of the world which encompasses him.

Environment is a basic factor influencing one's character and opportunity.
School becomes the center around which an active student's life revolves.
It becomes a place where a student forms lasting friendships,
develops his unique personality,
and discovers a purpose in life.
The quality of its educators and their impact on young minds molds the generations of the future.
Students come to appreciate Start High School,
A place to become . . .

Congregating in the main hall,
Sejuna, Shenanigans,
homecoming, sock hops, and banquets.
The students of Start
engaged in an active school year
outside the classroom.
Spartan spirit penetrated everywhere
reaching new heights in accomplishments.
Crowded halls echoed
with the shrill sound of voices,
the shuffling of hurried feet,
and the banging of cluttered lockers.
Spartans poured into the auditorium
for a variety of programs and enthusiastic cheers filled the gym
as Spartans backed their teams with spirit.

STUDENT LIFE

Spirit Accents Year

Enthusiasm . . . excitement . . . effort—
Informal activities set the pattern
for the Spartan year.
Impromptu participation in cafeteria parties,
skits at pep rallies,
and homeroom decorating
helped build the winning spirit of the school.
Prominent among the fall assemblies
was a presentation by "Up With People."

The Group

Mr. Antrobus arrives home.

Learning the ropes of the trade.

"Hello, fellow beast."

Sejuna Interprets Wilder

Juniors and seniors working together
presented The Skin of Our Teeth
directed by Mrs. Ann Rosato.
Enthusiasm mounted as the cast was chosen
and the props were gathered.
Late rehearsals and unfinished homework
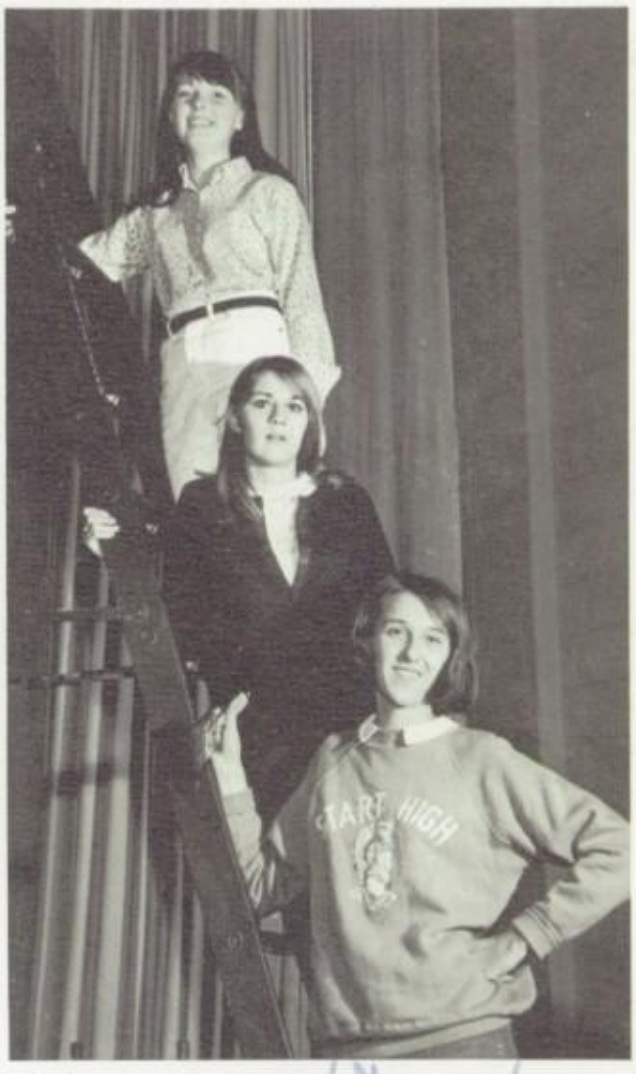
led up to a thrilling opening night and memories of another successful Sejuna.

"From destruction,
total destruction."

Debbie Cook as the maid, Sabina.



Set painters take a break.

Spartans break through Rebel defense toward victory.

The tension mounts as the court is announced.

Victorious Homecoming

With excitement mounting throughout the week,
Spartans prepared for the annual Homecoming festivities.
Green, gold and white streamers,
tissue flowers, and spirit banners decorated cars and floats in the parade
to Page Stadium
where an overflow crowd
watched the Spartan gridders
roll to a 21—0 victory over Bowsher.
Half-time ceremonies were highlighted by the crowning of Queen Nancy Menard.

"Hi!"

Nancy Menard in her moment of glory.

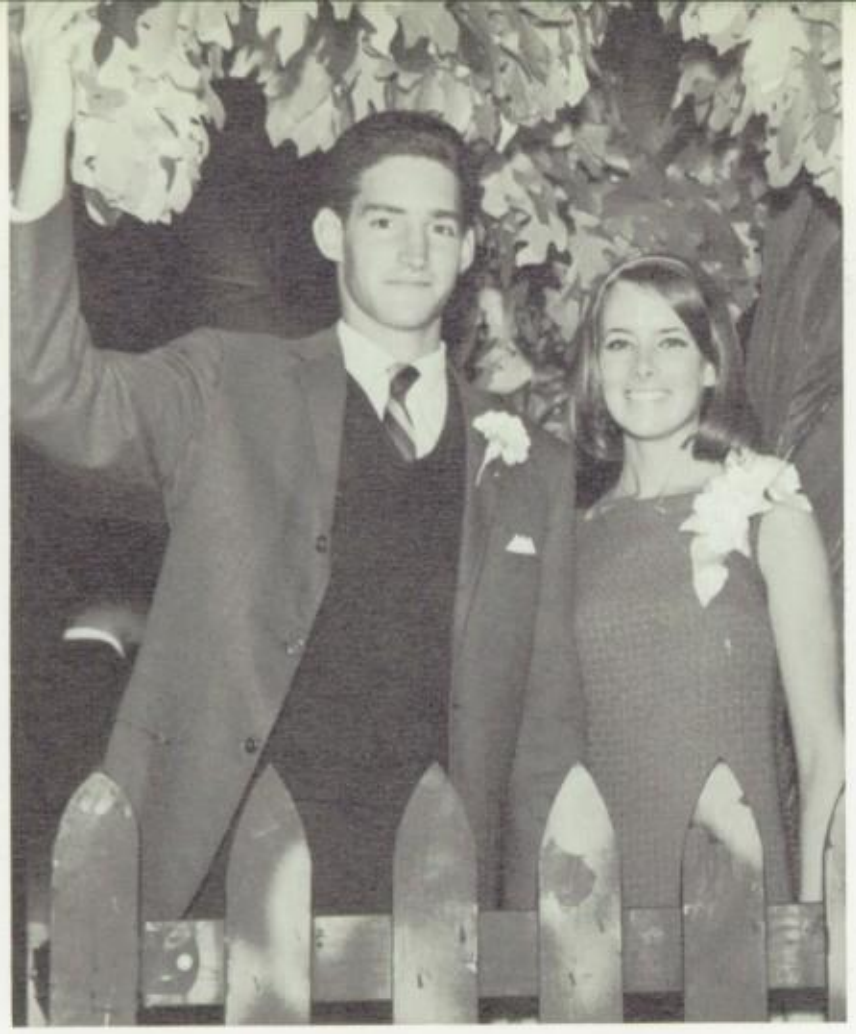
"Alone at last."

"Set 'em up, Herbie."



A "Blue Autumn" Finale

A majestic tree and autumn foliage formed the decorating theme as the Start cafeteria was transformed into an indigo woodland scene
for Homecoming 1967—Blue Autumn.
Returning alumni and triumphant Spartans joined the queen and her court
as they danced to the strains of Johnny Knorr and his orchestra.

Christmas Chorale

"Let it Snow," "Silent Night," and "Walking in a Winter Wonderland" filled the auditorium as the Start Royal Choir presented its annual December program. Mr. Myron Gerber, in his last year as vocal music director, led the choir in a presentation of seasonal melodies.

Gwen Fenneken and Frank Fischer harmonize.

New members take oath.

Mr. Thomson congratulates Sharon and Mr. Hornyak.

N.H.S. Honors Seniors

An impressive evening ceremony
ushered in the new members of the National Honor Society.
Dr. Thomas Gibney, of The University of Toledo, and students spoke at the induction.
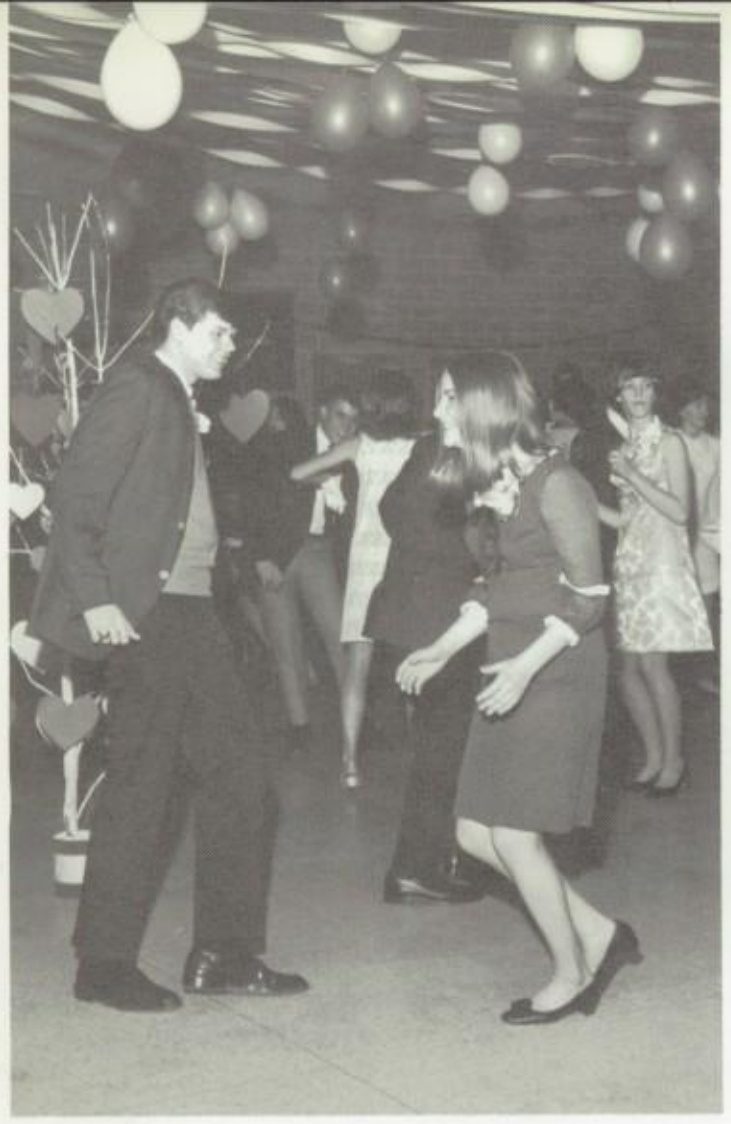
Candles, long-stemmed yellow roses,
school recognition, and parents' pride
made the evening an unforgettable one.



Valentine Excitement

Pink hearts and delicate heart trees
created a romantic atmosphere
at the February Student Council Dance,
Love and Kisses.
The "Candy Store Syndicate" provided lively music for the dancers captivated in a setting of scarlet and rose.
As the queen was announced,
joyful tears came, and the spotlight focused on Miss Nancy Williams who began her reign as
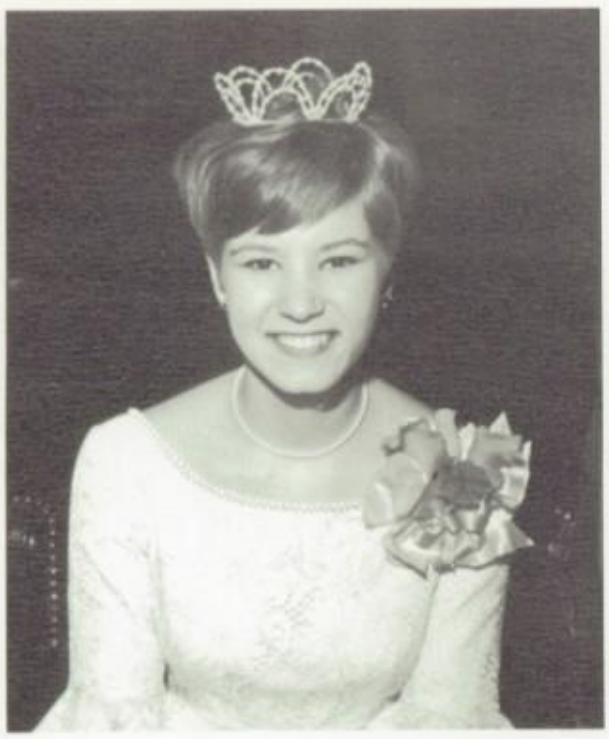
"Queen of Hearts."

Miss JoAnne Trippe,
T.A.S.C. candidate



Queen Nancy reigns over Student Council Dance.

Northern Wonderland

Small chateaux amidst silvery snowflakes
and snowy white mountains cast a spell of wintery magic
as the junior class presented their prom,
The Land of the Midnight Sun.
A wonderland of white became the scene
where couples danced to music by Charles McDaniels and his orchestra.

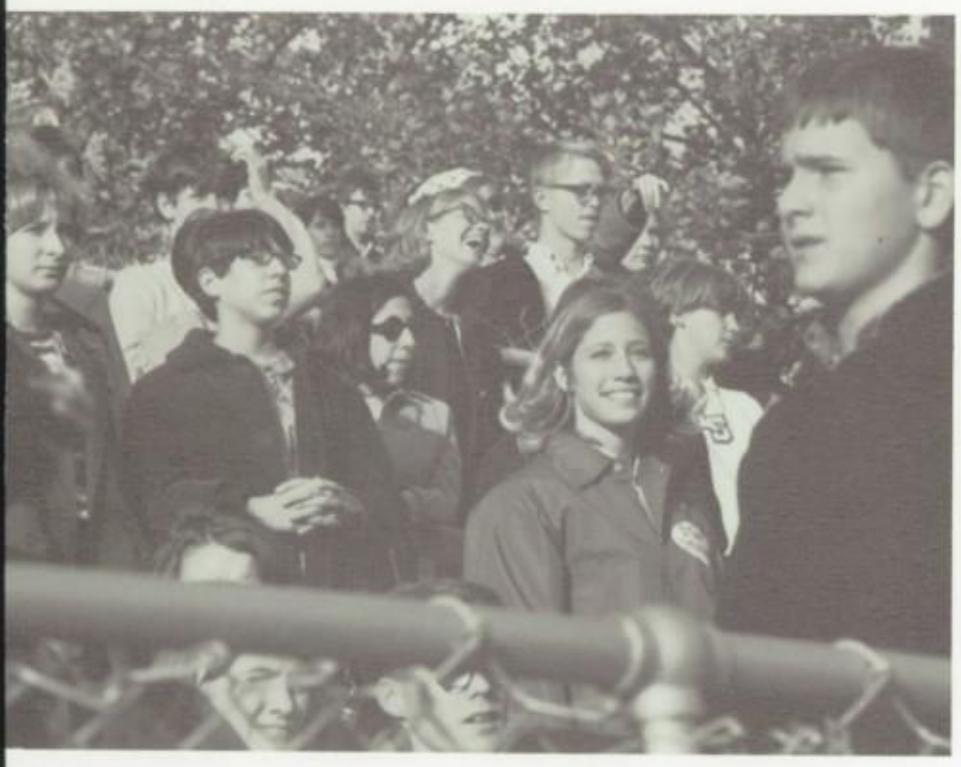
Mr. Eller's homeroom participates in Spartan spirit.



Energetic Expression

Pep assembly skits,
decorated halls and humorous antics created spirit for the Year of the Spartan.
Faces in the crowd reflected the loyalty, pride, and spirit
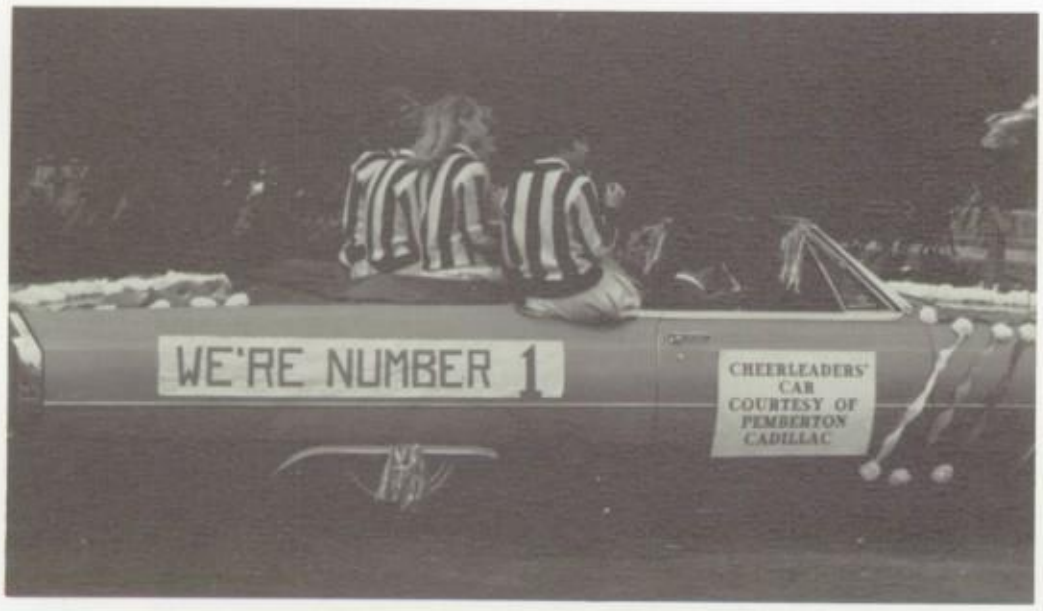
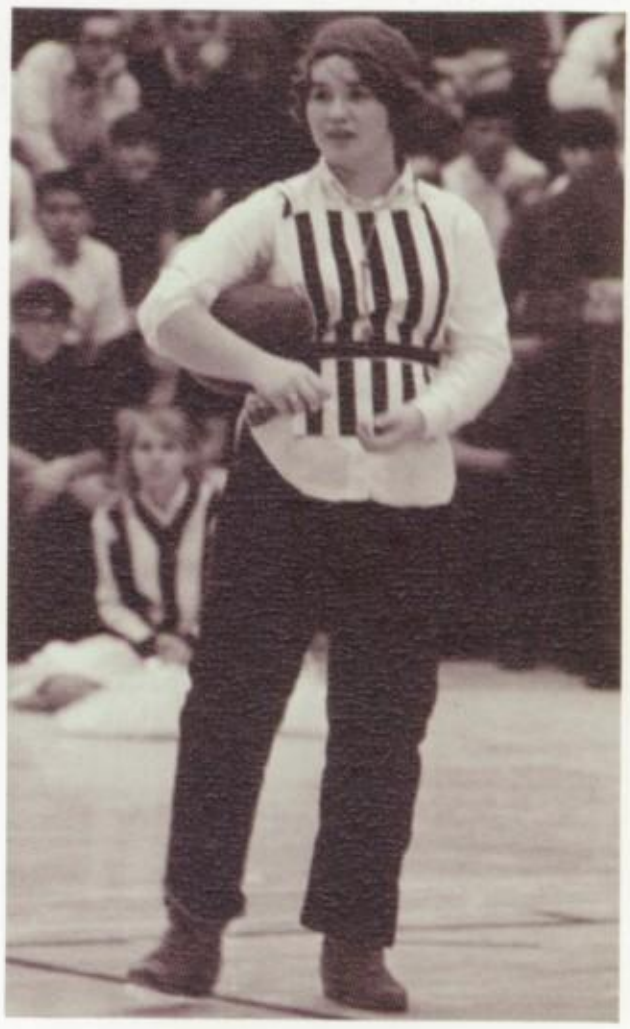
present throughout the year.



"We're from Start, and no one could be prouder!"

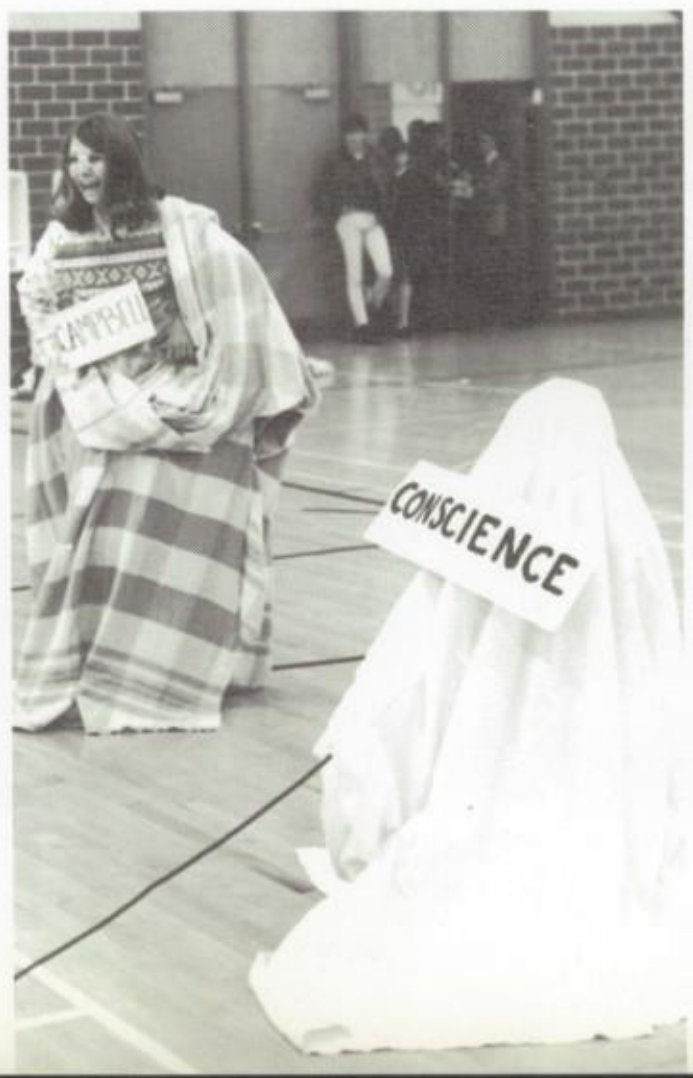
Victory bell symbolizes Spartan triumph.

Kathy Fuller referees Pep Club skit.



Rebel Nasset takes aim at Spartan hero.

"Hail to the Spartan!"



Peris probe Bowsher conscience in pre-game skit.

Rick Bliss receives award for sexiest cager legs.

"All for Start stand up and holler!"

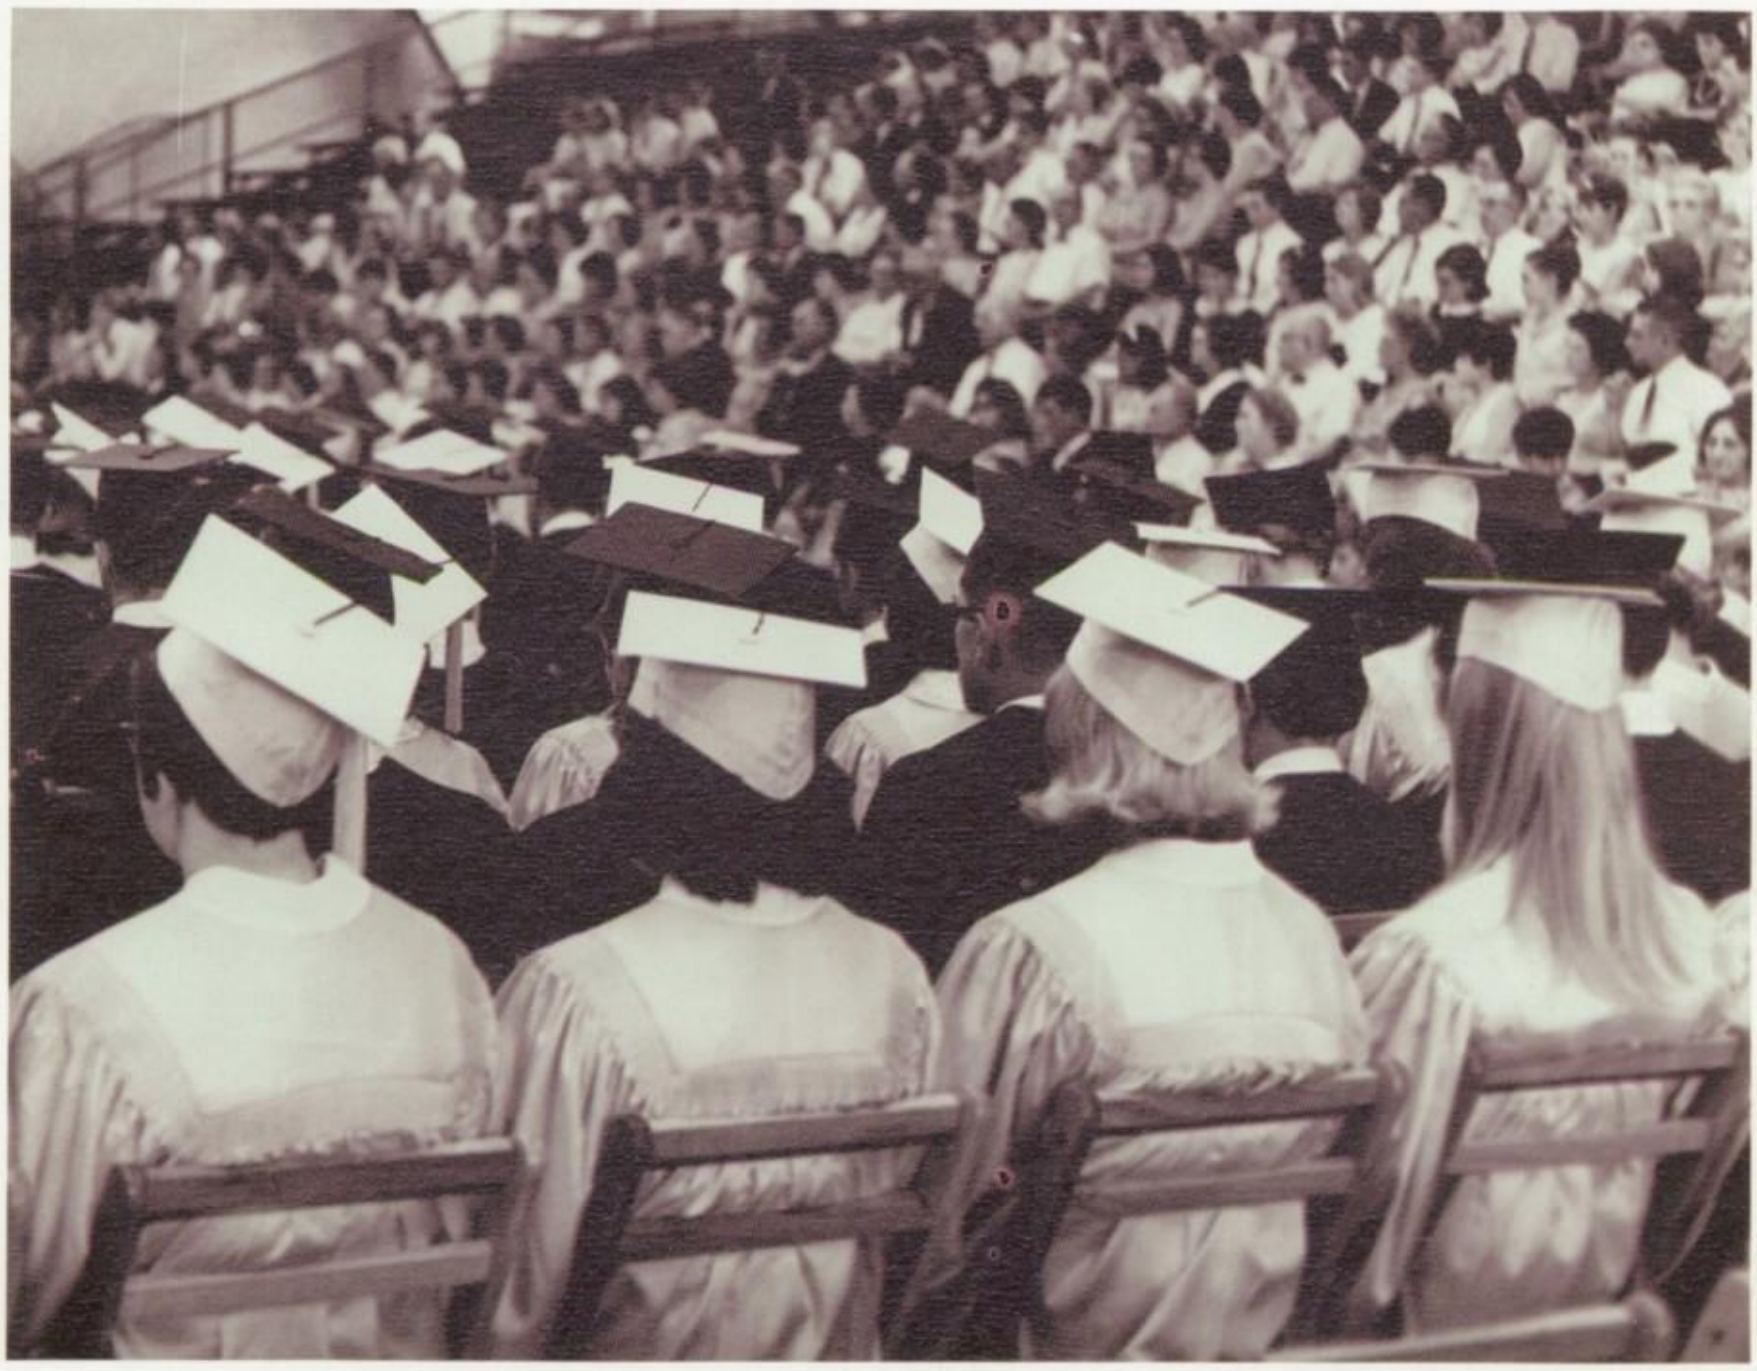
Spirit Week '68

Dressed up students,
stocking caps and pep tags
ushered in Spartan Spirit Week.
The walls were plastered with signs
showing class enthusiasm.
A color day, a hush day, a pep assembly,
and a Cager Cheesecake Contest were held
and Start was honored by WTOD.

Sue Valentine and Keith Warren embark on a memorable evening.

Closing Reflections

A solemn closing to a wonderful year
became the thought
instilled in many seniors' minds,
as the enchanted landscape of the Senior Prom,
the banquet, yearbooks, graduation,
and the prospect of leaving the place to become,
became a memory.



Inductions, teas,
sign-ups, and tryouts—
all signs of clubs at work.
Service projects,
bakesales, and banquets
helped to develop lasting friendships
among those who were involved in activities at Start.
Organizations led activities
beyond school walls.
Clubs sponsored pep assembly skits, sold spirit tags
and attended athletic events to boost spirit.
Serving others and developing skills
by participation
stimulated the interest of the students to become members.

"Involvement" was the watchword for the Student Council year. Planning began after President Aring and Vice-President Bachman attended the O.A.S.C. workshop in July. Fall brought freshman orientation, the annual freshman mixer "Wailin' Witchcraft," "Startadelic Sock Hop," and elections held in the bookroom for the first time. Another first this year was the Club Council composed of each club's president and headed by Kathy Zaenger, Organizations Director. The Projects Department successfully planned Homecoming and "Love and Kisses," the annual Student Council dance. In January, Spirit Week featured Start Week on W.T.O.D., Cager Cheesecake Contest, and Hush Day. Every event was marked by unprecedented enthusiasm.

The Galaxy

Members of the Galaxy staff knew the feeling of a job well-done as each issue of the newspaper was published. The Galaxy's main objectives were to inform all Spartans of the school-related activities and to provide a medium for them to express their opinions. The staff became used to the hectic schedule of meeting deadlines and thinking of ideas that would stimulate reader interest. Among the year's fun activities was decorating a car for the Homecoming parade. Outstanding staff members were inducted into the Quill and Scroll Journalistic Honor Society.

The Shield

Innovations of the 1968 Shield were a new type of cover, twice as much copy, and a new section entitled Academics. The year for the staff held missed deadlines, endless copy blocks, broken croppers, birthday parties, and staff pranks. The groundwork for the book was laid by four staff members and Mr. St. John in Hannibal, Missouri in early August. The cover and various styles were chosen. Seven staff members spent an exciting Thanksgiving vacation in Chicago with two-thousand other journalism students at the National Scholastic Press Association Convention. Financial problems, frustrations, and final gratification characterized "A Place to Become," the 1968 Shield.

Honor Society

Each year the National Honor Society selects students on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Members sponsored a car wash in July to provide funds for their August activities. The first was a progressive dinner followed by "Music Under the Stars" and Putt-Putt. The second was a trip to Wampler's Lake for a wet but fun-filled picnic. The N.H.S. quiz bowl team battled teams from Maumee Valley Country Day School, Bowsher, Libbey, and DeVilbiss. Members enjoyed ushering for the American Theater League plays. The hard work given fall and spring inductions was rewarded by impressive, memorable ceremonies.

National Forensic League

Membership in the National Forensic League is granted to students who have participated in numerous speech activities and have earned enough points to receive the Degree of Merit. Start's NFL members traveled to tournaments at Dayton Chaminade, Kettering West, Cincinnati Princeton and Canton McKinley, along with entering local tournaments. Their record is best exemplified by the "A" Debate team's first place finish in the Ohio State tournament.

Organized to promote the interests of interscholastic debate, oratory, and public speaking, members busied themselves with activities to encourage the spirit of fellowship among their worthy competitors. NFL sponsored a sock hop after the Perrysburg game, and presented a program showing their abilities to the PTA. The Start chapter sponsored two debate tournaments and one individual events tournament with the contestants coming from all over the state.

Spanish Honorary

"Todos a uno" was the motto for the students honored by the selection for the Sociedad Honoria de Hispanica. Organized in the spring of 1967 for the purpose of promoting excellence in Spanish, members gained recoghition with activities carried out in the best of Spanish traditions. A Christmas fiesta was highlighted by the breaking of the candy-filled pinata and not to be forgotten was the caroling throughout the adviser's neighborhood.

Quill and Scroll

Members of the Quill and Scroll Honor Society pledged themselves to the tenets of truth and leadership in their journalistic endeavors. Its purpose is to honor students who hold major positions on the school publications. Members publish the annual creative writing magazine, Dimensions, and began the biannual service project of revising the student handbook.

Amorosa

With the distinction of being the first service club at Start, Amorosa continued to promote friendship and perform services for the school and the community. They decorated the Byrnebrook Nursing Home for the holidays and held a party for the girls of the Miami Children's Home. Amorosa worked on a car wash with Q.D., held a candy apple sale, and contributed to the WTOD Penny Pitch. A Christmas party, "Visions of Sugar Plums", and a party planned with Waite's Forum led to the senior banquet, which saw the charter members graduate.

D.E.C.A.

"Under New Management" was the sign on the Spartan's Corner as the members of DECA took over the operation of the stationer's store. The chapter hosted a city-wide leadership conference and attended the district convention at Bowling Green. In cooperation with Sales and Marketing Executives International, DECA conducted a city-wide survey on teenage spending habits. During the Christmas season, the group traveled to the "Friendly Center." Members found a ready market for their display of hand-painted jewelry within Start's halls. Spartan Dave Clark was elected president of the Toledo Area Distributed Education Club of America.

Along with busily supporting functions of the school and community, Donata furthered the relationships of all people. The club sponsored a decorated car for the Homecoming parade, had a Halloween project and provided Thanksgiving and Christmas programs for the elderly at Spencer Manor Nursing Home. A bake sale was held to raise money for their treasury and spirit tags were sold. These activities enabled Donata to carry on their worthwhile projects. Members also attended Sejuna and a powderpuff football game with Talisman. Educational materials were given to the needy areas. Other projects were held for the Sunshine House and the Miami Children's Home.

Fishing Club

A totally destroyed kite for the annual kite flying contest started off the school year in the typical Fishing Club style. Despite this discouraging beginning, the members continued in their program to promote school spirit through active attendance and support of all athletic events. The year saw the formation of the Fishing Club Marching Kazoo Band, which strengthened the club's reputation as a non-conformist organization. Another of the club's ambitious projects was to sponsor a basketball game between the WTOD Radio Wonders and the Start faculty. Despite their continuous activity in support of school spirit, club members still found time to dream of fishing, especially on the occasion of the creek's overflowing.

The annual 24 hour car wash, the alumni stag party, toboggan parties, a rope pull and basketball game with Q.D.'s, and a hayride were all highlights of the year for the members of Forum. Actively participating in school events, Forum was represented on all varsity teams and as officers of student council and of each class. Members participated in a College Information Series in which they visited various colleges of interest. Second semester activities included a powder-puff game with Peris, a banana sale, a car rally, the quad-lit picnic, and a theater party to see "Camelot". The spring service project was to landscape the creek in front of the school. The year concluded with the awarding of a scholarship to the outstanding member at the Senior Banquet held at the Plantation Inn.

F.B.L.A.

Start's Future Business Leaders of America remained one of the most outstanding chapters in the state as they continued their record of winning certificates, plaques and trophies in both the Northwest District Meeting at Lake High School and at the state convention in Akron. This year's activities included a guest lecturer series and the service project of collecting canned goods for Christmas Cheer baskets. Start's FBLA had the pleasure of installing a new chapter at Springfield High School.

Future Homemakers

Start's chapter of the Future Homemakers of America put its culinary prowess and its sales ability to the test in a pre-Christmas fruitcake sale. The manufacture of the product required hours of work from each of the members and filled the halls with the mysterious aroma of fruitcake. Later in the year, the members learned about flower arrangements from a local florist. The club arranged to send representatives to the Ohio State FHA Convention in the spring. To prove that they could plan and execute an event successfully on their own, the girls treated their fathers to a dinner and challenged them to a volleyball game.

Future Nurses

The Future Nurses of America were organized to encourage careers in nursing and paramedical occupations. With the aid of adviser, Mrs. Dorothy Harrison, FNA members investigated career possibilities with the help of nurses and doctors in the area. Fall brought a new members induction and a basket was prepared for a poor family at Thanksgiving. A Future Nurses spirit poster appeared in the activities wing during spirit week. The club entertained a Girl Scout troup from St. Anthony's Villa by taking them to see "Winter Wonderland" and on a picnic in the spring. In May, the Future Nurses held their banquet and inductions.

Future Teachers

The Future Teachers of America began this year with a bakesale, a square dance at Willys Park, a Halloween charity project at St. Vincents Hospital, and a formal induction for new members. As an active chapter, Start's FTA hosted an area meeting featuring FTA consultant, Jack Widner as guest speaker. The girls also attended a fall conference at Delaware, Ohio. In April, members spent hours learning about the teaching profession and how to cultivate high qualities of character and leadership.

German Club

In order to promote interest in the culture and arts of Germany, the German Club was organized in the fall of 1967. In keeping with their purpose, they participated in the German-American Festival held at the Sports Arena. The twenty-five members of the club attend the regular meetings to cultivate their interest and gain an insight into the life of the German people. A German bakesale was held to increase the amount in the treasury.

J.C.L.

Winning the trophy for the best club display, members of the Junior Classical League began a most active year. Latin slogans abounded as the club sponsored a bakesale and sold spirit ribbons. The unique Homecoming entry, the traditional slave sale, and the Roman banquet all remain as proof that Latin is a living language. Other enjoyable activities included a visit to the museum to view the VanGogh exhibit.

International Club

The expanded activities of this year's International Club gained it community-wide recognition. The club concerned itself with a local problem during the Thanksgiving "Gobble Give" collecting 197 pounds of food for the Salvation Army's annual distribution. The members sponsored a sock hop after a football game, worked on a bakesale and car wash, and provided the manpower for an American Field Service fund-raising spaghetti dinner. Since their interests were closely related with those of the Toledo Area Junior Council of World Affairs, the Club sent representatives to its monthly meetings, took part in J.C.W.A.'s mock U.N. session and acted as host for the March J.C.W.A. Executive Board meeting. They also planned a panel discussion with the area A.F.S. students.

Photography Club

The Start Photographic Interest Club has lent valuable photographic service to Spartans at athletic events and social functions. Members were on the staffs of the Shield and the Galaxy. The Photography Club provided a psychedelic light show at the first sock hop of the year. Portraits of couples attending the Junior Prom and Sophomore Turnabout were again taken. Adviser Mr. John Engwert, an active camera enthusiast, submitted several photos for publication in magazines and newspapers.

Knights

Chess tournaments with other schools and an inter-school tournament to determine the chess champion of Start comprised the year's activities of the Knights. Drawing together the students who enjoyed the thinking, concentration, and challenge of a good game of chess, the Knights sponsored two tournament teams which matched wits with the teams of seven other area high schools. In February, the Knights participated in the Robert W. Beach Memorial Chess Tournament held at the Central YMCA.

Pep Club

Enthusiastic support of athletic events and in all other phases of school life was demonstrated by the members of Pep Club. Each week this club adorned the walls of the school with brightly painted spirit banners. Seniors from the Pep Club presented an assembly skit for the St. Francis football game, in which they dressed up like football players and saw the "White Knight" defeated by "Bev the Spartan." Before Spirit Week, Pep Club girls competed with the Varsity "S" boys in the sale of green and gold stocking caps. The prize for proving their superior in the faces of the Varsity "S" officers and advisers. In the spring, Pep Club planned a picnic with Varsity "S."

Pericleans

"Peris is more than just a club, it is a sisterhood of girls, bound together by a common love for friendship, fun, and service to others"—from the Big-Sister's Pledge of the Periclean Literary Society, this typifies the feeling members hold for their club. Annual projects included powderpuff football and basketball games with Forum, Spirit Week skit, Turnabout, Christmas windows, Alumnae Tea, and Senior Banquet. Serving others they collected for UNICEF and the Book Mart. Innovations of the year were a victory in the Kite-Flying Contest and a tea and style show held with Zets.

Pyramids

Every Wednesday the balcony of the girls' gym saw members of the Pyramid Tumbling Club working to perfect stunts ranging in difficulty from simple bends to back flips. With the goal of maintaining physical fitness and having fun doing it, girls planned to give a party for an orphanage on a second semester holiday. Pyramids offered such added attractions as broken bones, pulled ligaments, and stiff necks.

Radio Club

The Radio Club promoted interest in electronics through projects and club discussions. In keeping with its role as a special interest club, this group gave members a chance to learn radio fundamentals and practice the Morse code. It was an excellent opportunity to work for an amateur radio license. The Radio Club's main project, which was carried on throughout the year, was the repairing of radios belonging to the faculty members and students for a dollar plus parts charged.

Quill and Dagger

Quill and Daggar Literary Society promoted brotherhood and furthered the literary interests of its members. Q.D.'s held a co-ed car wash with Amorosa to build their respective treasuries. They were victorious in a tug-of-war with Forum across a creek in Ottawa Park and helped build spirit by crowning their own Miss Q.D.-pie at the Homecoming pep assembly and by sponsoring "Bono" the Spartan. Members ushered for the American Theater League presentations, donated money to a local charity, and participated in a Q.D.-Forum basketball game. The year ended with the annual Q.D. camp-out.

Sub-Surfers

A new club appeared in the fall and attracted a number of interested members desiring to learn about the fast-growing sport of scuba diving. A minimum of individual trouble and expense allowed students to become acquainted with the equipment involved in their adventures. Even while the club was organizing, the members worked to benefit Start High School by spending hours on the decorating of their Homecoming car and providing parking service for in-school activities. The Scuba Club demonstrated their spirit by displaying a large sign during Spirit Week. Second semester plans included a spring dive at a local quarry.

Talisman

In order to vary their program and increase member interest, Talisman Social Service Club included numerous "fun" activities with their service projects. In keeping with their principal purpose of aid to those in need, Talisman supplied a Christmas basket for a needy family and Easter baskets for the children's ward of a hospital. Catering to their members' desire to have fun, they held a splash party for members and their dates, and challenged Donata in a powder-puff football game which they won, 12-6, in the midst of a blizzard. Their skit before the De-Vilbiss game included a visit from Santa Claus.

Thespians

Ushering for Sejuna, Shenanigans, and the American Theater League, members of the Thespian Dramatic Society enjoyed the opportunity of studying the modern stage first hand. Members decorated a car for the Homecoming parade and planned a sledding and caroling party just prior to the Christmas vacation. Under the leadership of their adviser, Mr. David Evans, the group prepared scenes from various plays and presented a benefit play for a local orphanage. While many Thespians captured the major roles in Start's dramatic productions, others could be found behind the scenes making their contribution.

Varsity "S"

The Varsity "S" is an honorary club which took in only those boys who have lettered in a varsity sport. Varsity "S" served the school and promoted better relations between athletics, teachers, and administrators. Members participated in a Christmas party, sold programs at athletic events, and were cafeteria and hall guards. Before Spirit Week, Varsity "S" and Pep Club held a contest selling stocking caps in the school colors. Lettermen engaged in a campus clean-up, a Putt-Putt Golf tournament, and an annual picnic with Pep Club. Varsity "S" gave a skit at a basketball pep assembly, which was in keeping with their active backing of all the sports events.

Varsity "S" Officers—Kneeling—A. Cuttaia, Sgt.-at-Arms. Row 2—Mr. Richard Simrell, Adviser; J. Grodi, Sec.; P. Hasemeyer, Pres. Row 3—P. Ziemke, Treas.; W. Carstensen, V. Pres.

By supporting many school activities, the Zetalethean Literary Society helped further the literary interests of its members. Projects included visits to the Museum of Art, an entry in the annual kite flying contest, and a decorated car in the Homecoming parade. Zets gave a complete Thanksgiving dinner to a needy family. The year saw the first Zets-Peris Tea, planned to improve relations between the literary clubs. Zets spring service of cleaning the school parking lot helped to fulfill their motto, "Nihil Sine Labor."

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders were busy behind the scenes as well as in front of the crowds. Painting signs, selling spirit tags, and holding bakesales kept the squads busy between games and matches. Two nights a week Spartan cheerleaders practiced in the activities wing. They were rewarded well by two trophies at camp and a ribbon at the T.U. clinic. Exciting wrestling, basketball, and football victories, try-outs, Homecoming, game parades, and a memorable varsity basketball bus trip to Elyria gave each squad the chance to work together and perfect cheers.

Freshman Cheerleaders—Front Row—Karen Urbanski, Sue Kemp, Betty Franz. Row 2—Cheryl Sfaelos, Sherri Wenrick. Row 3—Janet Johnson, Capt.

Wrestling Cheerleaders—Lauri Fotoples, Nancy Menard, Capt.; Cheryl Colquhoun, Pam Mercer.

Spartanettes

High kicks and snappy routines characterized the Spartanettes this year as they promoted spirit and provided entertainment for Spartan athletic fans. The Spartanettes danced during the halftime of the Whitmer and St. Francis football games and for the St. Johns and Scott basketball games. The annual shoeshine was held in the main hall in the fall. A bakesale was also included in Spartanette activities.

Majorettes—Front Row—Janice Knorr, Diane Jewson. Row 2—Linda Heinl, Cathy Otremba, Cinay Bankey.

Chris Bankey, Drum Major

Twirlers

Batons flashed as majorettes performed to the tune of "Thoroughly Modern Millie" at football halftime. Majorettes, twirlers, and the drum major marched, led the band at halftime, and traveled by bus to out-of-town games. New uniforms, selling programs before games, routines at pep assemblies, and helping get the magazine program off to a good start highlighted the year as they continued to promote spirit. Each majorette, twirler, and the drum major belonged to the band for a year and was able to play an instrument.

Twirlers—Dave Alexander, Mike Koch

Concert Band

The Start High School marching band directed by Mr. Bruce Jacobson and featuring Drum Major Chris Bankey presented selections from "Bye, Bye Birdie" during the football season. A winter concert and a spring ice cream social gave the public an opportunity to hear the band's abilities. The candy sale provided spirited competition among band members as well as a profit for the organization. Several members of the marching band continued their musical activities in a pep band at home basketball games.

Orchestra

Maintaining their usual standard of excellence, the Start High School orchestra, under the baton of Mr. Bruce Jacobson, had a very busy musical season. They performed in the American Youth Performs Concert and presented programs in local elementary schools. They helped to establish that special mood that only music can create at the Honor Society inductions, presented a winter concert, and participated in the annual Band-Choir candy sale. Several orchestra members were selected for the regional orchestra, and Spartan Chris Bankey was selected to perform in the All-State Orchestra.

Royal Choir

Music for some is relaxation, for others, an educational experience. The members of Start's choirs learned the challenges and fruition that comes from performing before an audience. Whether in solo performances, in award winning ensembles, or in the assembled choir, the students learned the power of harmony. The Royal Choir received a warm reception after their Christmas program which included a seasonal sing-a-long. One of the most memorable events of the year was the opportunity to participate in the American Youth Performs Concert.

(it's too hard writing the other way!)
I know now why you so vigorously objected when I suggested you forget Dean after he treats you so mean. It hurts too much, and that's the best Reason I can think of to stay with some one!
Well, gotta go. Thanks for everything and call me this Summer!

Kathi -
Well, we aren't best of friends, but I know that your one of the REAL friends I do have. We have had a lot of fun in the past with good old "Turnb" and his friends and also with our newly formed club (the KNKK) I just wish that one day I would of had Ken call you up, that would have been funny! - Thanks for all the times when you did my hair, it sure does need it now though - Thanks too, Kath, for listening to all my problems and helping me (by giving me the hope) I prayed he'll come back with them too. I know that you have a lot of problems too, and I hope I have and can help you just a little! Only one thing that I want you to do for me: NEVER OPEN ANOTHER DOOR WHEN SOMEBODY'S THERE STRONGER THAN YOU (unless of course your mad and want to have the pleasure of slamming Ken in the face!) I hope that everything works out just great for you and Ken, if it doesn't I would think he'd better have a DARN good reason why it didn't.

Varsity Football

Hours of practice, hot showers, curfews, and blisters added up to a rewarding year for Spartan footballers as they compiled a 5—3—1 record, the best ever in Start's history. The Spartan gridders rolled over Waite in the highest scoring game of the season, 44—14. Victory over Elyria gave Start its first out-of-town win. Another first came for Start as defensive lineman Mike Bochnovich caught a deflected punt and scored a touchdown in the DeVilbiss game. Through a quirk in twin league scheduling, the Spartan victory over DeVilbiss placed the coveted "Victory Bell" in the Start trophy case for the next seven years. All-City performances were turned in by co-captains Mike Bochnovich, defensive end, and Angie Cuttaia, split end. Also being tapped for honors were offensive guard Greg Kahl and MVP ground gainer Chip Carstensen. Quarterbacking the club the club was senior Phil Ziemke. Defensive linebacker Bill Carstensen received the "Norbert Milke Coach's Award."

Cross Country

Two mile runs through field and stream and early morning practices set the pace for the cross country team. The harriers established a 5—15 record with victories over Waite, Scott, and Macomber. Junior Jerry Altgilbers turned in the best time of the season with a 10:55 clocking. Four of five starters will be returning next season with senior Gary Rabideau the only graduate. Juniors Altgilbers, Greg Archer, Mike Mocniak, and sophomore Mark Stender are expected to lead the 1968 team.

Spartan Interests

Maintaining the spirit of Spartan pride through competition, several Start students excelled in athletic endeavors outside of the regular interschool athletic program. They could be found on swim teams, on the hockey field, working out at the YMCA, bowling in tournaments, and in summer baseball leagues. A few have been selected to represent the many.

Varsity Basketball

Start High cagers began the season by rocketing to four victories before slowing down in midseason. They recovered during the last half to post a 9—8 overall record. Their 6—5 record in the Blue Division of the City League put them in a tie for second place. Junior center Jon Andre and forward Tim Klump led the Spartan scoring. Sparked by guards Dave DuGai and Rick Buss, the team turned in outstanding performances against Scott, Macomber, DeVilbiss, and Central. Rick Boyd's defensive work, Arnie Fretz's shooting, and Denny Brighton's ball-handling also proved to be valuable contributions throughout the season. With starters Andre and Jerry Altgilbers returning, and only five of the varsity team leaving, Coach Bushong feels next year's prospects look bright.

Varsity Wrestling

Start wrestlers, paced by co-captains Greg Kahl and Rudy Garcia, turned in the best record in Start's wrestling history. Although plagued by injuries the second half of the season, the team compiled a 6—2 record in addition to placing first in the Start Invitational Wrestling Tournament and fifth in the Bowling Green Tournament. In the first City League Tournament, Start grapplers finished fourth with senior Greg Kahl placing first in the 165 lb. class. Dan Hahn placed third at 175, while Jim Jacobs, Rudy Garcia, and Gary Plumadore took fourths at 112, 127, and 154 respectively. Golf

Mr. Darryl Kroggel coached his Spartan golfers to a 6—5 league record and a seventh place in the district. Bob McKenty, captain, led the linksmen to a third place in the City League with his individual record of seven wins and four losses. Bob set a new record as he was chosen Most Valuable Player for all three years that he participated in golf. The other lettermen guiding the squad were seniors Bob Vargo, Pat Maciolik, Bill Holtfreter, and junior Randy Bee who will return for the 1968 season.

Bill Seth sets up serve.

Tennis

The 1967 netmen placed third in the city league with the help of three shutouts during the season. Captain Bill Seth had an individual record of seven wins and no losses. For the tournaments at Jermain Park, junior MVP Angie Cuttaia and sophomore Mark Fisher joined forces as a doubles combination to become sectional runners-up. Steve Hall won the Scholastic Award. Coach Don Niederhauser expects that prospects for the 1968 season will be good with only two varsity lettermen graduating in the class of '67.

The track team finished the season with a 2—6 record, holding victories over Macomber and Waite. The thinclads placed 9th in the DeVilbiss Relays, 14th in the Blade Relays, and finished 12th in the District Meet. New head coach Dan Simrell predicts an improved season.

The new English composition course combined with American history to give many juniors a challenging year.
Seniors could elect to take AP courses
in European history and chemistry
for college credit.

Scheduling Computerized

Curriculum changes were not the only innovations
at Start this year.
Students found that switching from the semester system to the unit plan
meant fewer final exams.
Mrs. Houser, assistant principal—instruction, stated that the updated system placed more responsibility on the student because he could no longer transfer from one class to another at the semester.
Scheduling and grading by IBM computer speeded up the time consuming necessities of running an educational program.

Equipment Improves Methods

The Board of Education
purchased several new items
for the business department
to keep up with advancing office techniques.
Included were a shorthand machine
which dictates at four different speeds,
a varityper, and an IBM Selectric Assimilated Key-punch machine.
A senior course in data processing
was also added to the curriculum.

A comprehensive high school such as Start has innumerable offerings
to satisfy a student's learning desires.
Electives varied from speech and debate
to journalism and senior geography.
Vocational electives included
home economics and electronics.

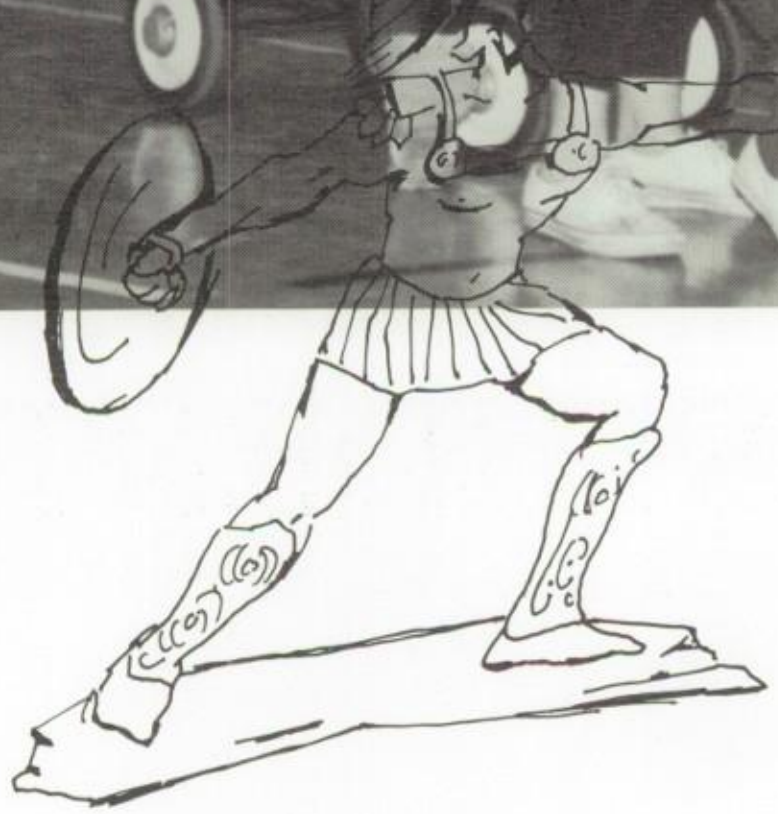
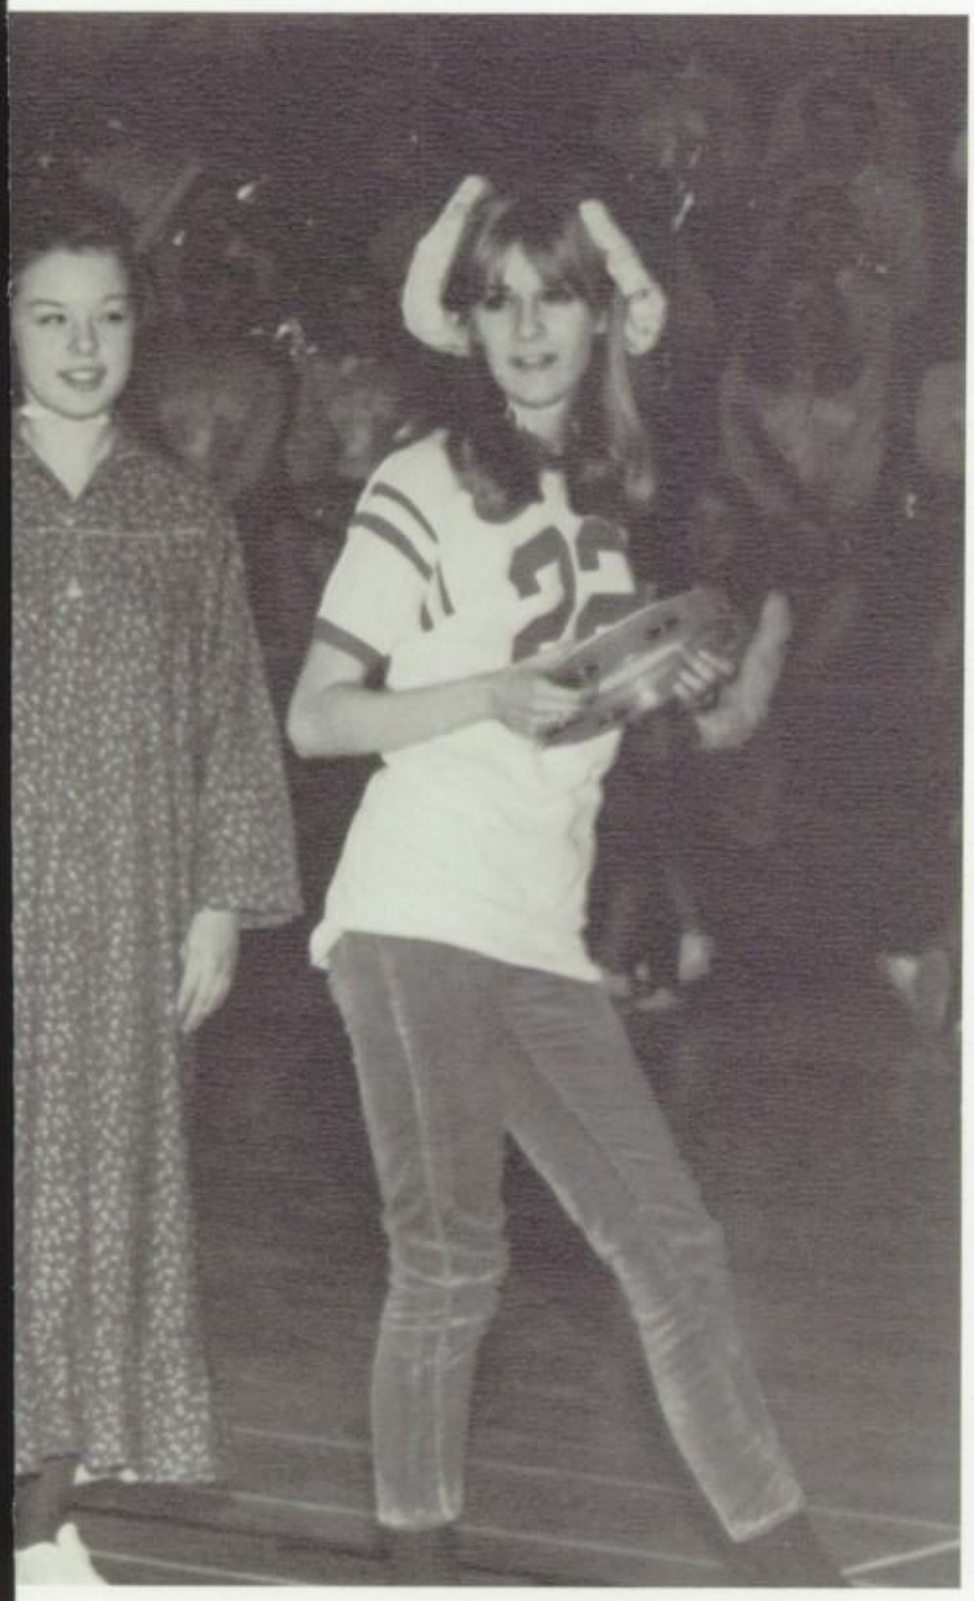
RADIO





Students became enthusiastically involved in the many activities offered to them.
Freshmen entered a new world,
sophomores enjoyed their position of experience,
and juniors readied themselves
for responsibilities and decisions.
The students at Start
found the atmosphere they needed
to explore the ideas and opinions of others,
and by accepting or rejecting them,
to develop their own philosophies.
Enjoying a most memorable year,
the students shared
the experience of growing up
as members of the Spartan family.

Freshmen Embark

The Class of '71
took the first steps
in building their next four years,
having fun
and learning to work with others
inside and outside the classroom.
For them, the freshman year
was the first chance to meet and make friends with those beyond the grade school group.
Asking questions and following upperclassmen matured the freshmen.
They began to form
the standards that will make them
the leaders of the school.

Valuable Experience

Sophomores eagerly awaited
their second year at Start.
Since they had become acquainted with the operation of the school
during their freshman year,
they had definite ideas
about the activities they wished to join.
At the beginning of the year
the sophomores had their first chance to elect class officers who began to set goals
for the class to pursue.
The sophomores realized
that they had more responsibilities,
but they still found time
to be the biggest antagonizers
of the freshmen.
Sophomore boys discovered,
to their disappointment,
that they were big enough for varsity,
but only old enough for J.V.

Accepting Responsibility

Juniors were a little older and a little wiser
when they entered school in the fall.
They busied themselves preparing a sock hop featuring "The Chocolate Pie,"
their share in Sejuna,
and a skit at the Rogers pep assembly.
Academically, the Class of '69
readied for college by taking the PSAT and competed for membership in the National Honor Society.
History field trips
and a Christmas window
filled in the busy junior year.
A period of realization set in
as juniors buckled down to work
to prepare for college

Junior Pride

By June,
the juniors were set in their ways,
readying themselves
to take the reins of leadership
from the graduating seniors, determined that their class was to become the best ever at Start.

Summer Planning

Last spring representatives and officers were elected so that they could begin to function during the summer. Committees were formed to organize publicity, ways and means, and special projects. Juniors learned that committee work was the major factor in the success of their projects and that it allowed more of the class to participate in its success.

Cooperation Abounds

Juniors expanded their knowledge
through the trials of chemistry lab
and the difficulty
of standardized history tests,
varied their interests
by joining special clubs
and different activities,
and increased their understanding of others
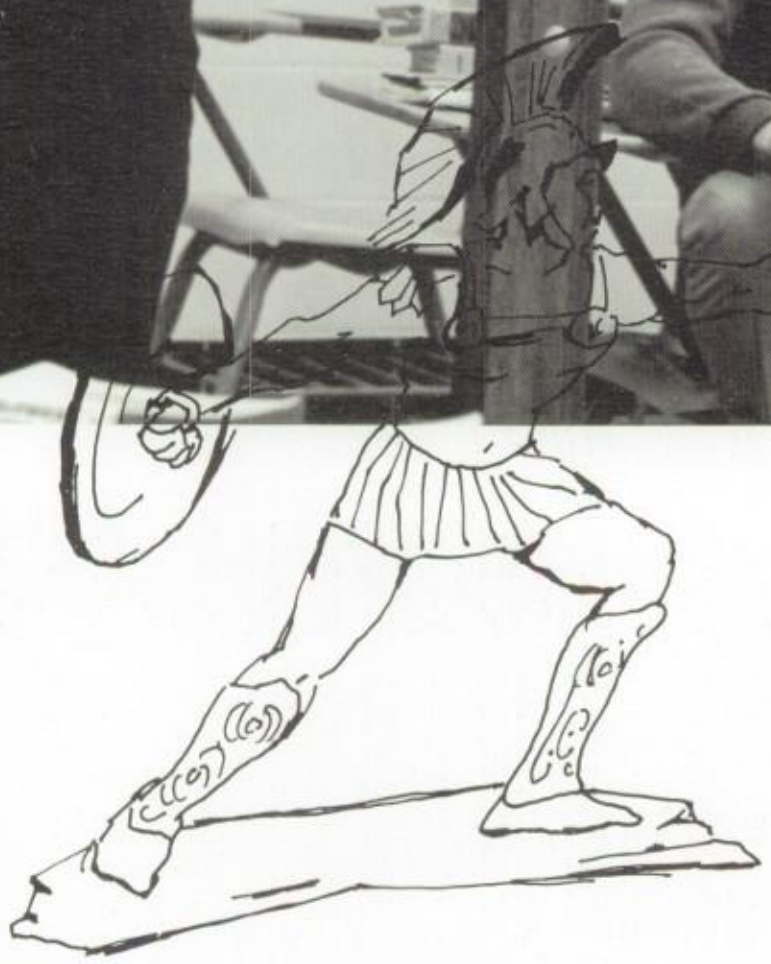
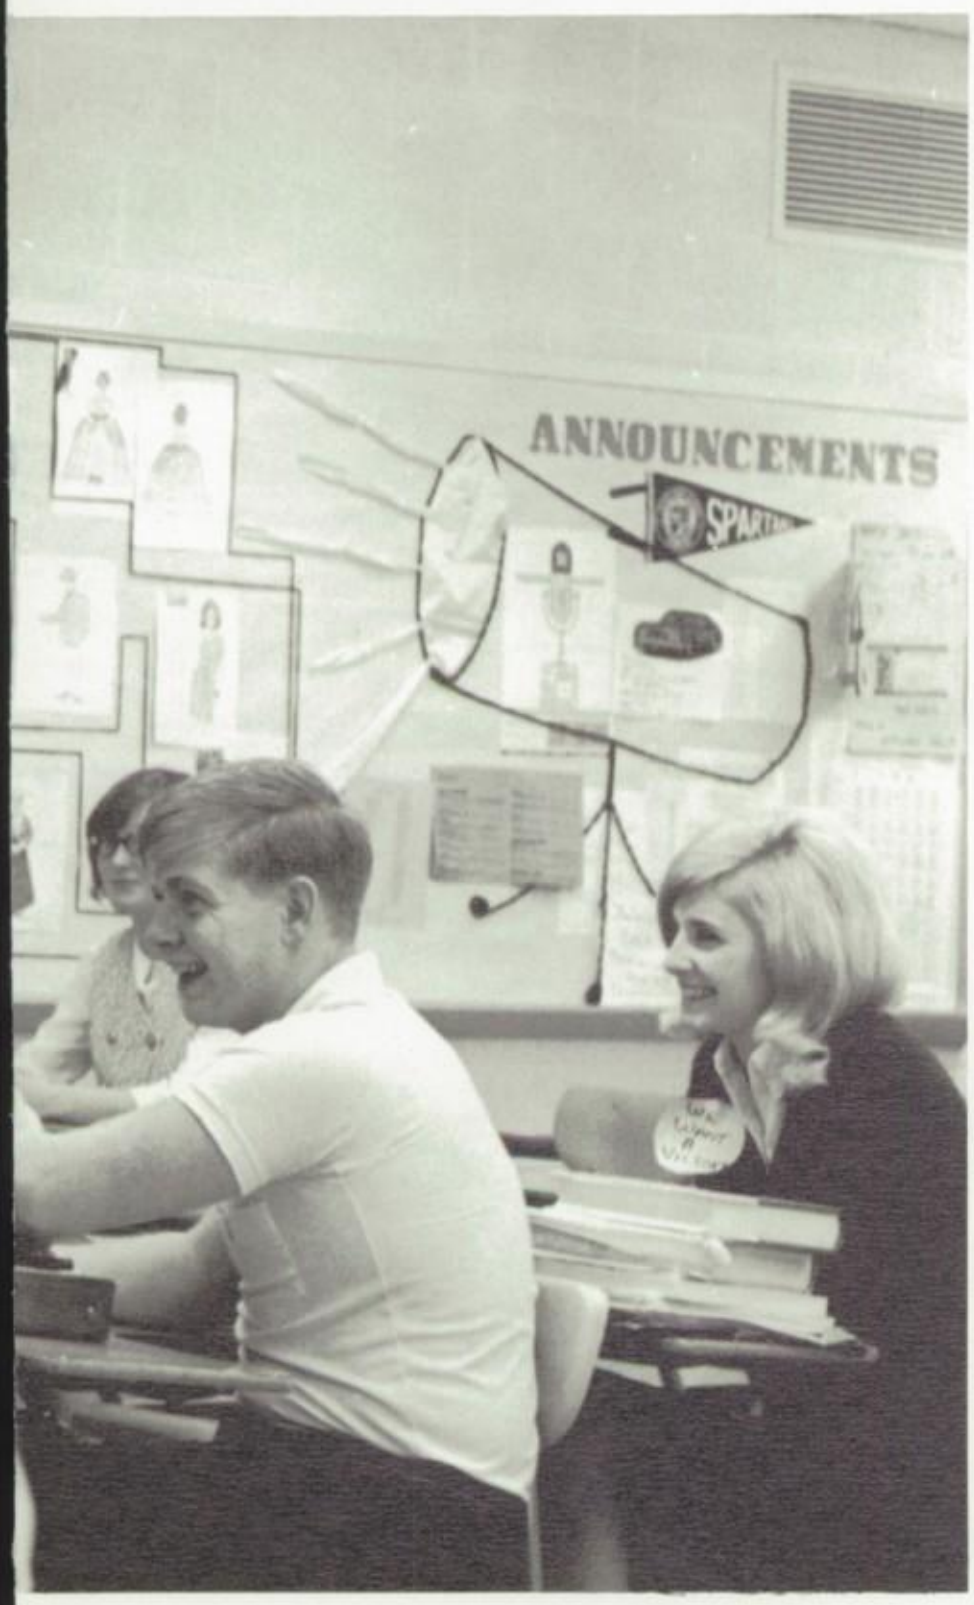
by association with more people.

Joe Malin traces map of the week.





An enchanting prom,
a senior banquet, a trip, and gowns—
these are all part of a senior's memories.
For the Class of '68, graduation
meant the separation from close friends.
As seniors, they provided a good example for underclassmen by being the most enthusiastic supporters
and scholars of the school.
They enjoyed wandering in the senior court
and other special privileges.
As they approached the world of adulthood
they saw things through new eyes—
the eyes of maturity.
Experiences and knowledge gained at Start enriched their lives for the future—
a future that is so near.

SENIORS

Chip Carstensen, President

Conclusion for Seniors

A hushed audience
of cap and gown clad seniors
sat restlessly
in The University of Toledo Field House
as four fun-filled, exciting years passed before them—
years of building tradition,
contributing ideas,
and offering leadership to Start.
Pride in accomplishments,
pride in each other,
and pride in school
gave seniors
feelings of sadness and excitement
at the end of their most important year.
A time for a new beginning and for a new place to become . . .

Hectic Last Weeks

Seniors endeavored to make their final year at Start
one of lasting impressions
for themselves and their school.
Intent on accepting their responsibilities
and proving their worth,
the Class of '68 set a fine example
for the underclassmen to follow.

that they had postponed or overlooked,
seniors seemed to be in a constant state of vibrancy.

Many Thanks for . . .

The photographic abilities of Powell Studios—
Jack Putnam, Bob Abraham,
Dave Heitzman, and Walter Wisniewski; Enterprise School Photos;
our own talented photographers—
George Koinis, Clint Spevak,
Tom Miller, and Mr. John Engwert;
the expert typing of Nancy Wolff;
the Business Staff and our patrons;
our American Yearbook representatives—
"Gus" Hoverson and Bob Blanton;
and the backing of every Spartan.

From the Chief . . .

A convention lecturer once said,
"A yearbook is forever."
So are the many memories of its staff . . .
Hannibal, cakes, pennies in the Scotties box,
home just in time for supper, galexy feuds, Chicago's Piper's Alley, elevators, subways, steaks, and "Barefoot in the Park,"
"Edelweiss," the Curtain, "Bubba" and "Stamp,"
a lost Christmas vacation, quizzes,
"varied highlights," and "Studies Persist."
Mr. St. John, our tormented adviser, deserves immeasurable gratitude
for his time and toil.
It has been an unforgettable privilege to work with as great a staff as composed the 1968 Shield, with its problems, tensions,
and final satisfaction.

God bless,

Betsy

Gus—our friend forever, a man not easily forgotten.

I love everyone of you guys. Dean and you have entered a world that noone else can trespass on. It's a world that revolves around only you two. Noone else could ever come between you. And you met a guy like Dean you just don't forget him. He's lucky and you luck, cause you got something everone else is searching for in this crazy world- True Love. There's nothing that hurts as bad as being lonely and I hope you never have to face it again. It's the worst fate for anyone because you'll come to realize how really bad off this manmade hell is and you get to thinking on how you would love to leave it. Watch me end up being a mum. SURE. But "another day- maybe a brighter one." I lost mine Kathy, but don't loose yours- It's too much to bare. Keep loving Dean and keep him happy cause if you do that you got him in the palm of your hand. Please, I'll do anything to keep you from ending up feeling like me. We're going to be together for a long time because our friendship is one you can't undo. So be good and stay happy

Love Ya & KEEP DOWN YOURS

Dean's. GOD

All the fuck in the Pot

world.

Bunky

P.S. Stay Together-

Forever

This place to become
has made us what we are and has become a part of every Spartan.

Kathy,

Well 2 years. Thats along time. There's not much I can say that I haven't said to you already. Im so glad that you and Dean got back together I don't think neither of us would've made it if you wouldn't have. I'll tell you one thing those talks, the tears, the waiting and the friendship will last forever. Nothing could come between or break apart the years of friendship we've built the past 2 years. There a Quality we have - and thats not needing material things. Sure money comes in mighty handy but we can do without it. Love, understanding, pity, sympathy etc is what we care about and what really touches us inside. I know you'll never let Dean go or ever forget him. There too many memories. But if it ever happens again you know where I am and remember when it happens (if) its because God thinks there somebody in this vast world who is better for you. I know you can't except this now but someday you may have to face up to it. I won't ever be able to forget all the times we had either. Just think back once, the times downtown, Sue Walker's house, the nights at my house, in the backyard in the summer, the Garage. I here the times that make me realize my life really has amounted to something - because I'll tell you one thing - No-one in this world could have as good as friends as I have. I'd do anything for any of you because I

Kathy,
It's been a great year in Art.
Hope to see ya next year and maybe we can have some more
"Gab" Sessions. Good Luck always and be good "70"
Love Melody Jones

Kathy,
To a real sweet girl,
It's been fun knowing
you in typing class.
Have fun & be good.
Kathy
& DEAN

Kathy
To a real sweet
girl who was a artist in art. Good luck next year
Peggy Gross

Kathy,
To a real good artist, you should be a hair stylist
Good luck with Dean
Luv ya
